Abstract
Llama llama prepares for bedtime with his mother. She tucks him in and then heads downstairs to clean. Llama llama starts to get upset and he wants his mama and she is not coming. He starts to worry that she is gone and throws a big tantrum. Mama hears the commotion and thinking that something is wrong, she hurries to her Llama llama. Mother tells Llama llama that his drama is not very appreciated. Llama then goes to sleep knowing that his mama loves him and it is time for bed.
